

THIRD-PARTY ADS PROVIDERS

We may use certain online identifiers or device identifiers to understand how user interact with our service, track our traffic and personalize content and ads. We also share such identifiers and other information from your device with our advertising and analytics partners who may combine it with other information you've provided them or they've collected from your use of their service.

As part of our commitment to complying with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we integrated third-party ads SDK which promise to be compliant with GDPR and are allowed to deliver, serve and measure ads in the European Economic Area (EEA), to support ad delivery, ad measurement and other functions.

Those third-party ads providers are deemed to be independent data controllers under GDPR. You can view those ads providers' privacy policy to learn more how your data to be collected and processed by those ads providers. For convenience, we've also listed those providers we have cooperated with below.
